- M1 North to M6 Junction 6 then A38M (Aston Expressway) signposted Birmingham Central.
- Continue forward onto A38 signposted Other Routes, Ring Road, City Centre, Bromsgrove.
- Continue forward through St Chad's Queensway underpass (A38 changes to A41) signposted Bromsgrove.
- Carry straight on to Paradise Circus Queensway roundabout, then branch left and take the 4th exit onto the A457 signposted Dudley, Smethwick.
- Continue forward, signposted Convention Centre, Symphony Hall and National Indoor Arena.
- At Spring Hill roundabout (Junction 7, approx. 1 mile), take the 2nd exit onto the A457 Signposted Oldbury, Smethwick, Cape Hill.
- After approx 1.5 miles, City Hospital is on your right (turn right at the traffic lights just before the hospital into Western Road).
- The entrance to the hospital car parks is the second entrance on your left in Western Road. Keep ahead through the car park barrier, following signs for the Postgraduate Education Centre.

(Alternatively, you may find it easier to travel M40 North, then take M42 South, and M5 North to Junction 3. Then follow directions from the South and South West below.

From the South and South West:

- M5 North to Junction 3, signposted Birmingham A456. Straight ahead towards Quinton, signposted City Centre, Edgbaston for approx. 3 miles.
- At the Kings Head Cross (Bearwood), continue forward at the traffic lights, signposted City Centre, Edgbaston. Take first left turn just after the Majestic Wines store onto A4040 (Barnsley Road), signposted City Hospital.
- At T-junction, turn right onto Sandon Road, then left at the traffic lights into City Road, signposted Handsworth & City Hospital.

- Straight ahead to the T-junction at the end of City Road, then turn right at the traffic lights onto Dudley Road A457.
- Keep ahead, going past the hospital (on your left) and take next left at the traffic lights into Western Road.
- The entrance to the hospital car parks is the second entrance on your left in Western Road. Keep ahead through the car park barrier, following signs for the Postgraduate Education Centre.

From the North:

- M6 South to Junction 6, then follow signs as from London and the South East above.

CAR PARKING INFORMATION:

There is a large pay and display car park adjacent to the Postgraduate Centre with adequate parking for 160 cars. This car park is called the Ascot Car Park which is designated for permit holders and visitors to the Post Graduate Centre only. The present car parking charges are from £2 to £5 for up to a maximum of 8 hours - it is easier to pay with coins.

From your car, walk back to the entrance to the car park and turn right. Proceed along this road until you come to a new building (the Ascot Clinic is opposite). The entrance to the Postgraduate Education Centre is to the left of the new building, first door on the right. Tutorial Room 5 is up the stairs on the first floor.

Disabled car parking facilities can be made available on request from the Postgraduate Centre (0121 507 4980) on the small car park outside the Centre.

All parking is at the risk of the car owner and the hospital and The Training in Contemporary Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage incurred.
