CAR PARKING INFORMATION:

Please enter the hospital site via the Western Road entrance (2nd on the left if approaching from Dudley Road). Keep ahead through the hospital grounds, following signs for the Post Graduate Centre.

There is a large pay and display car park adjacent to the Postgraduate Centre with adequate parking for 160 cars. This car park is called the Ascot Car Park which is designated for permit holders and visitors to the Post Graduate Centre only. The present car parking charges are from £2 to £5 for up to a maximum of 8 hours and the machine only accepts coins.

From your car, walk back to the entrance to the car park and turn right. Proceed along this road until you come to a new building (the Ascot Clinic is opposite). The entrance to the Postgraduate Education Centre is to the left of the new building, first door on the right. Tutorial Room 5 is up the stairs on the first floor.

Disabled car parking facilities can be made available on request from the Postgraduate Centre (0121 507 4980) on the small car park outside the Centre.

All parking is at the risk of the car owner and the hospital and The Training in Contemporary Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage incurred.
