

The Jungian Training Committee

of The West Midlands Institute of Psychotherapy

Presents an Evening Lecture with

Mary Target

PSYCHOTHERAPY IN THE BRAVE NEW WORLD OF EVIDENCE

Monday 21st September 2009

7pm – 8.30pm
(Tea / coffee from 6.30pm)

Birmingham Medical Institute, 36 Harborne Road, Birmingham, B15 3AF

This lecture will introduce some of the issues concerning the application of evidence-based practice, eg. through NICE guidance, to our work as psychotherapists. It will be proposed that we do indeed have an obligation to consider and show our effectiveness, and that this is possible though very tricky to do. Some dilemmas for all of us will be outlined

Mary Target PhD is Professor of Psychoanalysis at University College London (UCL) and Professional Director of the Anna Freud Centre. She is a Fellow of the British Psycho-Analytical Society, and Course Director of UCL's Masters in Theoretical Psychoanalytic Studies. She carries out research on child attachment and treatment outcomes and has a part-time adult practice.

Cost of Event- £35.00 (WMIP member) and £45.00 (non-WMIP member)
